2. According to learned counsel for the petitioner, the contract awarded to the tenth respondent, by the ninth respondent, at the instance of the eighth respondent, is, in fact, a benami venture for the benefit of the eighth respondent and his brother, who is managing the real estate business of the eighth respondent.

3. According to learned counsel, the Tamil Nadu Vigilance Commission, on 30.12.2022, had also asked the Additional Chief Secretary to Government to submit action taken on the allegations contained in the petition, as referred in Reference No.1 of the said letter. However, nothing is coming forth.

4. The petitioner ought to have made a specific averment. It is not a case that the authorities are not taking steps. Letter is already issued by the Tamil Nadu Vigilance Commission to the Additional Chief Secretary on 30.12.2022 to intimate the action taken on the allegations contained in the petition, as referred to in Reference No.1 of the said letter.

5. The petitioner has not placed on record any material to suggest that the petitioner had taken steps to get the information and that the information was not made available. It is only if the petitioner can make a specific averment to that effect, then only the petitioner ought to have filed the present petition.

6. In the light of that, it is for the petitioner to take appropriate steps with regard to the necessary information and in case the information as sought for is not furnished or upon the information furnished, steps can be taken in that regard by the aggrieved party.

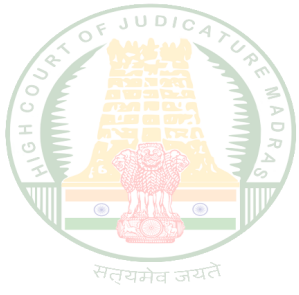

7/ With the aforesaid observations, this public interest litigation is disposed of. There will be no order as to costs. Consequently, WMP No.13497 of 2023 is closed.
